

Literal vs. Nonliteral

Directions: Read each sentence and circle whether it is literal or nonliteral. If it is nonliteral, write down what it actually means. The first one is done for you.

1. The food we ordered was delivered in a blink of an eye.

Literal or Nonliteral Nonliteral Very Quickly

2. The car I want to buy costs a fortune.

Literal or Nonliteral

3. Wayde went on a long walk after his dinner.

Literal or Nonliteral

4. Mr. Weir's belly is so big that it enters the house hours before he does.

Literal or Nonliteral

5. Noah weighed more than a whale after he ate the whole pie.

Literal or Nonliteral

6. Not much can stop Shiloh from winning Kahoot today.

Literal or Nonliteral

7. Teagan studies at the library on weekends.

Literal or Nonliteral

8. Hyrum waited for centuries to go to Mexico.

Literal or Nonliteral

9. Lyla has a list of chores that is a mile long.

Literal or Nonliteral

10. Dacia never ever stops to take a break from her book.

Literal or Nonliteral

