Simple vs. Compound Sentences

Instructions: Take the two simple sentences and create a compound.

Example: The cat is back. It is angry. Rewrite as: The cat is back and it is angry.

Possible words to use.

for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

1. I was late getting to the Washington Monument. I made it before my friend left.

_____
_____

2. A river carved out the Grand Canyon. That is why it is so deep.

_____
_____

3. A fossil gives us clues. They help us understand the past.

_____
_____

4. Dalis is going to the Petrified National Park. She doesn't know when though.

_____
_____

5. The bee flew to the flower. It came back with trace amounts of pollen.

_____
_____